Asian Philosophy is an international journal concerned with philosophical traditions such as Indian, Chinese, Japanese, Buddhist and Islamic. The purpose of the journal is to bring these rich and varied traditions to a worldwide academic audience. It publishes articles in the central philosophical areas of metaphysics, philosophy of mind, epistemology, logic, moral and social philosophy, as well as in applied philosophical areas such as aesthetics and jurisprudence. It also publishes articles comparing Eastern and Western philosophical traditions.

Editorial correspondence, including manuscripts for submission and books for review, should be addressed to Dr Brian Carr, Asian Philosophy, 27 South Avenue, Heavitree, Exeter, EX1 2DZ, UK. Details concerning the submission and preparation of articles can be found on the inside back cover of each issue.

Asian Philosophy is currently abstracted in: The Philosopher's Index; Humanities Abstracts; Humanities Index; Multicultural Education Abstracts; Periodica Islamica; British Humanities Index; DARE Databank and UNESCO CD-Rom and on line via ECHO; Arts & Humanities Citation Index; Research Alert; Current Contents/Arts & Humanities.

Peer review policy. All research articles in this journal have undergone rigorous peer review, based on initial editor screening and anonymized refereeing by at least two anonymous referees.
