

Policy Watch

- 08 Art Should Serve People
- 10 Going Global Means No Cultural Expansion
European Times interviews Chinese Vice Cultural Minister Ding Wei

Celebrities

- 12 Swedish Archaeologist Johan Andersson: Discoverer of Yangshao Culture

Works of the Month

- 16 Dragon-horse Show Staged to Celebrate China-France Friendship
- 18 Chinese Cloth Paste Painting “Cleopatra” Displayed in Cairo
- 19 Circulation and Appreciation of Chinese Artworks in Modern Japan
- 21 A Package Program Launched to Promote China-UK Cultural Exchange

Art for all

- 23 Let Our Souls Keep Up With Our Pace
- 26 Museum Should Also Be Smart

Art as Business

- 28 ChinaSPAF: a Barometer for the Performing Arts Market
- 30 Sino-foreign Film Co-production Boosts Chinese Films to Go Global
- 32 Wuyutai’s World Dream Comes True
Time-honored brand Wuyutai provides tea service to APEC Summit 2014

Heritages

- 34 Splendor of the Han, Rise of the Celestial Empire
Han Dynasty artifacts on display at Guimet Museum, Paris
- 37 A Glimpse of Intangible Cultural Heritage in Hong Kong and Macau
- 39 Qin Brick and Han Tile Museum in Xi’an
- 41 Historic Western-style Buildings in Anqing

Stay in Residence

- 43 Symposium Held to Promote China Studies

China & World Studies

- 47 What Kind of Contemporary Chinese Literature do Western Readers “Fancy”?

