CONTENTS

ARTICLES
A People's History of Book of Mormon Archeology: Excavating the Role of “Folk” Practitioners in the Emergence of a Field
Christopher C. Smith  1

“Free Forever to Act for Themselves”: Howard Thurman and Latter-day Saint Agency
Kristen Blair  43

ROUNDTABLE: CONTEMPORARY PERSPECTIVES ON THE THIRTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE SEPTEMBER SIX
A Question of Authority
Jana Riess  67

The September Six and the Lost Generation of Mormon Studies
Patrick Q. Mason  79

The September Six and the Evolution of Mormon Magisteria
Kristine Haglund  89

Mormon Dissent in the Age of Fracture
Benjamin E. Park  101

She Simply Wanted More: Mormon Women and Excommunication
Amanda Hendrix-Komoto  109

PERSONAL VOICES
Miracles Upon Miracles for Maher
Thora Qaddumi  123

Eve’s Choice
Erika Munson  133

Some Definitions of Gratitude
Elizabeth Cranford García  143

Questioning the Immorality of Coffee
Sherrae Phelps  147

FICTION
No More Sister than St. Nick
Lee Robison  153

POETRY
Noted in the Dark
Dixie Partridge  169

These Are the Hours
Dixie Partridge  170

Vantage: Hoback Rim to Wind River
Dixie Partridge  171
The Days Between—After Leaving Our Youngest
At College
Lithium Shuffle
heavy seeds
flicker

Dixie Partridge 172
Reed Richards 174
James Dewey 175
James Dewey 176

REVIEWS
“What if . . .?” and “How so . . .?” and “I wonder . . .”
Mix with LDS Doctrine and Culture to Generate
Each Story in The Darkest Abyss
William Morris, The Darkest Abyss:
Strange Mormon Stories

Paul Williams 179

Making the Shadow Conscious
Rachel Rueckert, East Winds: A Global Quest to Reckon with Marriage

Mel Henderson 184

The Great Awakening of the LDS-Mormon
Art Scene
Chase Westfall, Great Awakening:
Vision and Synthesis in Latter-day Saint
Contemporary Art

Heather Belnap 189